

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

FEBRUARY 27, 2004

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH FEBRUARY 25, 2004

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that an incident report was distributed on that offense.

Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS

SULLY DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 1)

EXPOSURE

*Saint Germain Drive

14200

Police are investigating an exposure that occurred at the Centreville Library, located at 14200 Saint German Drive, on February 19. The victims, two Centreville area girls, aged eight and ten, reported that they were at the Centreville Library at 5 p.m. on Thursday. As they were walking in an aisle, their attention was drawn to the next aisle where a man was standing. He drew their attention several times and then he exposed himself. The girls went home with their mother and told her later in the evening. The suspect was described as white, in his 60's, five feet seven inches to five feet 10 inches tall, and between 170 and 200 pounds. He had grey hair and wrinkles on his face. He was last seen wearing a grey sweatshirt.

HIT AND RUN ACCIDENT

*Fairfax County Parkway/Burke Center Parkway

Crash Reconstruction detectives are investigating a fatal hit-and-run crash that occurred on February 23. Around 2:15 a.m., Emeka Rowland Nwosu, 48, of 4037 Kimberly Glen Court in the Chantilly area, was standing on the passenger side of his Toyota Camry, parked on the right northbound shoulder of the Fairfax County Parkway north of Burke Center Parkway. Another vehicle rear-ended Nwosu's car, then struck him and pushed the Toyota several yards and flipped it over. Nwosu died at the scene. The striking vehicle, most likely with extensive front end damage, then left the scene headed north on the Fairfax County Parkway. Investigation determined the striking vehicle was a Treador red Ford F-250 or F-350 Super Duty pickup truck.

ROBBERY

Richmond Highway

6800

A 28-year-old Alexandria area man was robbed Friday, February 20, at 2:00 am. The victim got out of his car to use an ATM at the Bank of America, located at 6802 Richmond Highway, when he was approached by two men who demanded his money. One of the suspects was armed with a handgun. The victim gave the suspects his wallet and jacket. The suspects then fled the area on foot. The first suspect was described as black, in his early twenties, five foot eight inches to six feet tall, wearing a brown trench coat, blue jeans, and a brown scarf. The second suspect was described as black, in his early twenties, wearing blue jeans and a long blue jacket.

McLEAN DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 3)BURGLARIESGosnell Road

1700

Several apartments in the Archstone Apartments complex in the 1700 block of Gosnell Road in the Tysons Corner area have been burglarized and detectives are asking for information to solve these cases. Since May of 2003, ten apartments have been entered by jimmying the front doors with a credit card or similar piece of plastic. Jewelry, laptop computers and cash have been taken from the unoccupied apartments. Three other cases have been reported to police which involved homeowners hearing noises in their apartments and finding a man standing in their home when they investigated the noises. Two suspicious events were reported. The first happened when a homeowner heard noises at her front door and she found a man using a credit card in an attempt to enter her home. The second suspicious event occurred when a woman found a man attempting to enter her apartment using a set of keys. Composite sketches were completed of both men. The man using the credit card was described as Hispanic, 40 years old, five feet eleven inches tall and weighing 200 pounds with black hair and brown eyes. He was wearing a grey t-shirt and jeans. The man with the set of keys was described as Hispanic or Middle Eastern, in his 20's five feet two inches tall and weighing 150 pounds with black hair, brown eyes and a mustache. He was wearing a blue skull cap and jeans.

MASON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 4)INFANT DEATHMoray Lane

3400

A 3 1/2-month-old boy died of injuries apparently inflicted by his father. On February 24 at 9:30 a.m., Fire and Rescue personnel and police officers went to a house in the 3400 block of Moray Lane in the Baileys Crossroads area, for an infant that was unresponsive. The baby was taken to Inova Fairfax Hospital, where it was determined the child was suffering from a brain injury. Further investigation revealed the injury had been caused by his father, 26-year-old Eric Smith of 31 Garden Drive in Alexandria. Smith was taken into custody on February 24 and originally charged with felony child abuse. He was taken to the Adult Detention Center and held without bond. Two days later, the child, Dominic Smith, died. Additional charges against Eric Smith are pending.

BANK ROBBERYWoodburn Road

3200

Two men with guns robbed employees at the United Bank, located at 3289 Woodburn Road in the Annandale area, about 1:00 p.m., February 21. Two men wearing black masks walked into the bank and announced a robbery. All employees complied with the suspects' demands and no one was injured. The men left with an undisclosed amount of money. Witnesses described the suspects as possibly being Asian. One man stood five feet ten inches tall, weighed 160 pounds and wore a white shirt with stripes. The second man stood five feet five inches tall, weighed 165 pounds and wore a green shirt, blue jeans and boots.

RESTON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 5)BRANDISHING

*Freedom Drive

11900

An off-duty Fairfax County Police detective arrested a 15-year-old boy on February 21 after he brandished a gun while at a Reston area Starbucks. Around 7 p.m., the suspect walked into the coffee shop, located at 11951 Freedom Drive, and pulled a handgun from his waistband. The detective, who was a customer at the time, pulled his weapon, identified himself as a police officer, and ordered the suspect not to move. The suspect dropped his gun and was arrested by the detective. The nickel-plated handgun turned out to be a toy. It is not known what the suspect's intentions were. The suspect was then taken to the Juvenile Detention Center, where he was charged with brandishing a firearm.

FRANCONIA DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 6)ROBBERY

Backlick Road near Villa Park Road

On February 20 at 1:00 a.m., a Springfield area man, 31, was walking when two men and a woman approached him. One man asked for a cigarette, and as he looked in his pocket, the man punched him, knocking him to the ground. The suspects rummaged through his pockets and took his money. The suspects were last seen running south on Backlick Road. The victim was treated at the scene for bruises and abrasions. The suspects were described as Hispanic and wearing dark clothing.

WEST SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 7)ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

Old Keene Mill Road

8100

A Washington Irving Middle School student was the victim of an attempted robbery as he rode the school bus home. About 3:00 p.m. on Friday, February 20, a 13-year-old Springfield area boy was riding the bus home from the school, located at 8100 Old Keene Mill Road. Three other students, all 13-year-old Springfield area teens, were passing around a knife between the three of them. Two of the three boys walked up to the victim, showed the knife and demanded his shoes. The victim told them he would give them the shoes next week. The victim told his parents and they, in turn, called police. Petitions were pending for the three boys.

FAIR OAKS DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 8)ROBBERY

*Lee Jackson Memorial Highway

12000

A 29-year-old Winchester, Virginia, woman was robbed as she attempted to make a night deposit at the Bank of America near Fair Oaks Mall. On February 19 at 10:35 p.m., the woman drove up to the drop box at the bank, located at 12011 Lee Jackson Memorial Highway. She was about to unlock the box when a man armed with a gun ran toward her. The victim was frightened and dropped the deposit bag on the ground. The man picked it up and was last seen running toward a dumpster near Route 50. The suspect was described as Hispanic, 20 years old, five feet five inches tall and weighing 150 pounds. He was wearing a black baseball hat, black hooded jacket, dark pants and black and white scarf.

ANIMAL CONTROL DIVISION

Colshire Drive

7400 McLean District

On February 21 at 9:00 p.m., a McLean area woman, 53, stopped at the roadside to pick up an injured raccoon that appeared to have been hit by a car. The raccoon was euthanized and the carcass sent to the Fairfax County Health Department, where it tested positive for rabies.

Raccoon Ridge Court

11000 Reston District

On February 18 at 7:30 p.m., a raccoon entered a home through a dog door. Three dogs in the home fought with the raccoon and the owner summoned Animal Control. The raccoon was captured and the carcass was sent to the Fairfax County Health Department, where it tested positive for rabies. The three dogs involved in the incident were current on their rabies vaccinations, and will be home quarantined for 45 days. Each dog was scheduled to receive a rabies booster shot as well.

Wilburdale Drive

7200

On February 24 at 11:00 p.m., an Annandale area man, 48, reported his two dogs had killed a raccoon in his back yard. The carcass was sent to the Fairfax County Health Department, where it tested positive for rabies. The dogs were current on their rabies vaccinations, were to receive a booster shot and will be home quarantined for 45 days.

West Constable Court

10000 W Spfld. District

A raccoon that was injured by two dogs on West Constable Court in the Fairfax area has tested positive for rabies. On February 23, around 9:25 p.m., a 30-year-old man discovered his two dogs had fought and wounded a raccoon. The dogs' owner killed the raccoon then called Animal Control. The carcass was taken to the Fairfax County Health Department, where it tested positive for rabies. The dogs received rabies booster shots and have been quarantined at home for 45 days.
